

SCHOOL Attendance

CHRONIC ABSENCE

Missing 10% or more of days enrolled in school; excused or unexcused absences, prompts support from the school, to identify barriers to success.

DID YOU KNOW?

Daily attendance at school helps to:

-  REDUCE STRESS & ANXIETY
-  BUILD FRIENDSHIPS
-  CREATE BONDS WITH TEACHERS
-  SUPPORTS LEARNING

Ernest J. May Elementary School has many different resources and people to help if there is a barrier that is preventing your child from attending school on time, every day.

Everyday
MATTERS

Ernest J. May ATTENDANCE POLICY

BE HERE TODAY,
BE READY FOR TOMORROW!

ATTEND TODAY, ACHIEVE TOMORROW!

PARENTS AND/OR GUARDIANS OF CCSD STUDENT(S) WILL RECEIVE DISTRICT LETTER(S) REGARDING ABSENCES.

3

AFTER 3 INCIDENTS OF ABSENCES

AT RISK:

For students demonstrating a pattern of chronic absence, truancy, or tardiness.

NEXT STEPS:

- Teacher contacts family.
- Resources will be provided to families regarding attendance.

Students are encouraged to be at school on time!

Chronic tardiness can also have a negative impact on students' academic performance.

3 Days Tardy Equates to 1 Absence.

6+

AFTER 6, 9, & 15 INCIDENTS OF ABSENCES

MODERATE TRUANCY OR CHRONIC ABSENCE:

For students who continue demonstrating a pattern of chronic absence, truancy, or tardiness.

NEXT STEPS:

- Attendance staff will contact the home to express concern.
- After 10 absences, a physician's note is required for any future absences.
- A referral is made to the attendance officer for support (after 6 absences).
- Student is withdrawn from school after 10 consecutive absences.

16+

AFTER 16 OR MORE INCIDENTS OF ABSENCES

SEVERE TRUANCY OR CHRONIC ABSENCE:

For students who continue demonstrating a pattern of chronic absence, truancy, or tardiness.

NEXT STEPS:

- Parent/Guardian will schedule a Required Parent Conference (RPC) with the administration.
- After 20 incidents of absences, an educational neglect complaint will be submitted to Department of Family Services (DFS) as required by Nevada State Law.
- Retention will be considered.

YOUR PARTNERSHIP. THEIR FUTURE.

GOOD ATTENDANCE TODAY
LEADS TO GREAT OPPORTUNITIES
TOMORROW!

